DECLARATION OF SUSAN R. NECHELES

SUSAN R. NECHELES hereby declares under penalty of perjury:

1. I am an attorney duly admitted to practice in this Court. I am a partner in the law firm of Hafetz & Necheles, counsel to Mr. Paul Greenwood in the above-captioned case and in two parallel civil actions, Commodity Futures Trading Commission v. Walsh, et. al, 09-cv-1749 (GBD), and Securities and Exchange Commission v. WG Trading Investors, et al., 09-cv-1750 (GBD). I submit this declaration and the attached exhibits in support of Mr. Greenwood's Motion for Attorneys' Fees and Costs.

2. On February 25, 2009, Judge Daniels issued a Statutory Restraining Order in the CFTC case, see Exhibit ("Ex.") A at 5-7, and a Temporary Restraining Order in the SEC case, see Ex. B at 14-16, freezing all of Mr. Greenwood's assets.

3. On May 22, 2009, Judge Daniels ordered Preliminary Injunctions in the CFTC and SEC matters, extending the terms of the February 25, 2009 Statutory Restraining Order and the Temporary Restraining Order until further order of the Court. See Ex. C at 6; Ex. D at 6 . All of Mr. Greenwood's assets are now in the control of the Receiver appointed in the civil cases. See Ex. A. at 8-13; Ex. B at 18-20, Ex. C at 6; Ex. D at 6.

4. On July 24, 2009, Mr. Greenwood was indicted. United States v. Greenwood, et al., 09-cr-722 (MGC). See Ex. E. His arraignment before this Court took place on July 31, 2009, and discovery and motion preparation is currently being conducted in the criminal case.

6. As set forth in the accompanying Declaration of Paul Greenwood, Mr. Greenwood possesses no unfrozen assets with which to continue to retain counsel of his choice in this criminal case. See Greenwood Decl. at 1-2.

7. Mr. Greenwood retained Hafetz & Necheles on March 10, 2009. Mr. Greenwood's relatives paid Hafetz & Necheles a retainer of $250,000. The legal fees to date have been $219,069.30 for representing Mr. Greenwood in the two civil cases before Judge Daniels and in this criminal case. There is $30,930.70 remaining in his account at the firm. We anticipate that as of December 1, 2009, that amount will be reduced to approximately $20,000. If Mr. Greenwood is not afforded access to his untainted assets for the payment of attorneys' fees, Hafetz & Necheles will be unable to continue to represent him in this criminal action.

8. We estimate that if this case were to go to trial, the legal fees and costs would total approximately $2.4 million. This estimate is based on the following assumptions:

a) 24 weeks of pre-trial preparation at 40 hours per week by Frederick P. Hafetz, billing at $700 per hour, and two attorneys assisting him, each being billed at $400 per hour, and two paralegals, each being billed at $125 per hour, totaling $1,680,000 in fees;

b) 4 weeks of trial at 60 hours per week by Frederick P. Hafetz, two other attorneys and two paralegals, totaling $420,000 in fees; and

c) Pre-trial and trial-related costs, including, but not limited to the creation of an electronic data base, photocopying, transcripts, and court-room technology, totaling approximately $300,000.

9. We ask at this time that sufficient assets be released from the restraining order to pay $1 million to Hafetz & Necheles, to allow us to conduct our review of the facts and law in this case. We note that $1 million is a reasonable figure. The documents in this case are extensive. The government has estimated that there are over 100 boxes of documents and there are extensive computer files with unknown amounts of email. As Judge Kaplan noted in United States v. Stein, 495 F.Supp. 2d 390, 424 (S.D.N.Y. 2007), defense of white collar trials are extremely complicated and expensive. Recent high profile white collar prosecutions have had publically reported legal costs that ranged from $14.9 million to $70 million. Id. Accordingly, our estimate of $1 million to review documents and conduct a thorough legal analysis is a conservative estimate.

10. Hafetz & Necheles will place that $1 million in our escrow account and draw down on that $1 million based on monthly hourly billings. A bill will be presented to the client every month for his review and approval. If Mr. Greenwood's case is resolved prior to trial, any money left in the escrow account after sentencing or dismissal of the charges will be returned to the Receiver. If, on the other hand, the case proceeds to trial we will make a further application for fees from the Court.

11. At a status conference in the CFTC and SEC actions before Judge Daniels on November 13, 2009, Judge Daniels alerted counsel that he had discussed this anticipated motion with this Court, and that counsel for Mr. Greenwood should make the fee motion to this Court and provide him with copies of the filings.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

CIVIL ACTION NO.: 09 CV 749 (BAN)
(~~REDACTED~~) ORDER GRANTING MOTION FOR STATUTORY EX PARTE
RESTRAINING ORDER, FOR EXPEDITED
DISCOVERY, AND
ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE RE:
PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

✓ This matter came before the Court on February ^{25th} 2009 on the Motion of Plaintiff U.S.

Commodity Futures Trading Commission (the "Commission" or "Plaintiff") for a: (1) Statutory Ex Parte Restraining Order; (2) Order Permitting Immediate, Expedited Discovery; and (3) Order to Show Cause re: Preliminary Injunction (the "Application"). The Court, having considered the Commission's Complaint, Motion, Memorandum of Points and Authorities, Exhibits, other materials in support thereof, all other evidence presented by Plaintiff filed herein, finds that:

1. This Court has jurisdiction over the parties and over the subject matter of this action pursuant to Section 6c of the Commodity Exchange Act, as amended (the "Act") 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1 (2006).

2. Venue lies properly within this District pursuant to Sections 6c(e) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1(e) (2006).

3. There is good cause to believe that the Defendants have engaged, are engaging and/or are about to engage in acts and practices constituting violations of the Act, 7 U.S.C. §§ 1, et seq. (2006).

4. There is good cause to believe that the Relief Defendants, Westridge Capital Management Enhancement Funds Inc., WG Trading Company LP, WGI LLC, K&L Investments, and Janet Walsh, received funds and/or property as a result of the Defendants' unlawful conduct and have been unjustly enriched thereby. The Relief Defendants, Westridge Capital Management Enhancement Funds Inc., WG Trading Company LP, WGI LLC, K&L Investments, and Janet Walsh, have no legitimate entitlement to or interest in all of the funds and/or property received as a result of the Defendants' unlawful conduct.

5. There is good cause to believe that immediate and irreparable damage to the Court's ability to grant effective final relief for commodity pool participants in the form of monetary redress will occur from the sale, transfer, assignment, or other disposition by Defendants or Relief Defendants of assets or records unless Defendants and Relief Defendants are immediately restrained and enjoined by Order of this Court.

6. Good cause exists for the freezing of assets owned, controlled, managed or held by, on behalf of, or for the benefit of Defendants (hereinafter "Defendants' Assets") as well as in order to assure payment of restitution and disgorgement as authorized and for the benefit of pool participants. Good cause further exists for the freezing of assets owned, controlled, managed or held by, or on behalf of, or for the benefit of Relief Defendants (hereinafter "Relief Defendants' Assets") as well as in order to assure payment of all funds subject to restitution and disgorgement that the Relief Defendants have been unjustly enriched by, and to which they have no legitimate entitlement or interest, as authorized and for the benefit of pool participants.

7. Good cause exists for entry of an order prohibiting Defendants, their agents, servants, employees, assigns, attorneys, and persons in active concert or participation with the Defendants from destroying records and denying agents of the Commission access to inspect and copy records to ensure that Commission representatives have immediate and complete access to those books and records.

8. Good cause exists for entry of an order prohibiting Relief Defendants, their agents, servants, employees, assigns, attorneys, and persons in active concert or participation with the Relief Defendants from destroying records and denying agents of the Commission access to inspect and copy records to ensure that Commission representatives have immediate and complete access to those books and records.

9. Good cause exists to permit expedited discovery before the early meeting of counsel pursuant to Rule 26(d) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, in order to ascertain the existence and location of assets, clarify the source of funds, and identify all pool participants and other investors.

8. Good cause exists to require an accounting to determine the location and disposition of pool participants' funds.

9. Good cause exists to order repatriation of assets controlled by Defendants to assure payment of restitution and disgorgement as authorized and for the benefit of pool participants.

10. Weighing the equities and considering the Commission's likelihood of success in its claims for relief, the issuance of a statutory restraining order is in the public interest.

The Receiver and all personnel hired by the Receiver as herein authorized, including counsel to the Receiver, are entitled to reasonable compensation for the performance of duties pursuant to this Order and for the cost of actual out-of-pocket expenses incurred by them, from the assets now held by, or in the possession or control of, or which may be received by the Defendants or Relief Defendants. The Receiver shall file with the Court and serve on the parties, including Plaintiff Commission, periodic requests for the payment of such reasonable compensation, with the first such request filed no more than sixty (60) days after the date of this Order. - (f) providing that the Commission may take expedited discovery in preparation for a hearing on this Order to Show Cause; and
- (g) temporarily enjoining the Defendants, and their agents, employees, attorneys, or other professionals, anyone acting in concert with them, and any third party from filing a bankruptcy proceeding on behalf of the defendants without at least 3 days notice to the Plaintiff and approval of this Court.

The Court has considered (1) the Complaint filed by the Commission on February 25, 2009; (2) the Local Rule 6.1 Declaration of Joseph P. Dever; (3) the Declaration of Thomas P. Smith, Jr., executed on February 25, 2009, and the exhibits annexed thereto; and (4) the memorandum of law in support of the Commission's application.

Based upon the foregoing documents, the Court finds that a proper showing, as required by Section 20(b) of the Securities Act, Section 21(d) of the Exchange Act, and Section 209 of the Advisers Act, has been made for the relief granted herein, for the following reasons:

1. It appears from the evidence presented that
 - (a) the Defendants have violated and, unless temporarily restrained, will continue to violate, Section 17(a) of the Securities Act and Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act and Exchange Act Rule 10b-5; and

(b) Defendants Westridge, Greenwood and Walsh have violated, and/or Defendants Greenwood and Walsh have aided and abetted Defendant Westridge's violations, and unless temporarily restrained, will continue to violate, or aid and abet violations of, Sections 206(1), 206(2) and 206(4) of the Advisers Act and Advisers Act Rule 206(4)-8, as charged in the Complaint.

2. It appears that an order freezing the Defendants' assets and certain assets of the Relief Defendants, as specified herein, is necessary to preserve the status quo, and to protect this Court's ability to award equitable relief in the form of disgorgement of illegal profits from fraud and civil penalties, and to preserve the Court's ability to approve a fair distribution for victims of the fraud.

3. It appears that an order requiring each of the Defendants and Relief Defendants to provide a verified accounting of all assets, money and property held directly or indirectly by each of the Defendants, or by others for each of their direct and indirect beneficial interest, is necessary to effectuate and ensure compliance with the freeze imposed on the Defendants' assets.

4. It appears that the Defendants may attempt to destroy, alter or conceal documents.

5. It appears that the appointment of a receiver for WGTI, WGTC and Westridge is necessary to: (i) preserve the status quo; (ii) ascertain the extent of commingling of funds among WGTI and WGTC; (iii) ascertain the true financial condition of WGTI, WGTC and Westridge and the disposition of investor funds; (iv) prevent further dissipation of the property and assets of WGTI, WGTC and Westridge; (v) prevent the encumbrance or disposal of property or assets of WGTI, WGTC and Westridge and the investors; (vi) preserve the books, records and documents of WGTI, WGTC and Westridge; (vii) be available to respond to investor inquiries; (viii) protect investors' assets; and (ix) determine whether WGTI, WGTC and Westridge should undertake bankruptcy filings.

6. Good and sufficient reasons have been shown why procedure other than by notice of motion is necessary.

7. The Commission requires expedited discovery to determine, among other things, whether the Defendants are engaged in other ongoing frauds and obtain bank and other records to supplement its motion for preliminary injunctions.

8. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action and over the Defendants, and venue properly lies in this District.

NOW, THEREFORE,

I.

✓ IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Defendants show cause, if there be any, to this Court at 11:00 A.m. on the 3RD day of MARCH 2009, in Room 15D of the United States Courthouse, 500 Pearl Street, New York, New York 10007 why this Court should not enter an Order pursuant to Rule 65 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Section 20 of the Securities Act, Section 21 of the Exchange Act, and Section 209 of the Advisers Act preliminarily enjoining

Order of Preliminary Injunction Against Defendants

ECF Case

ORDER OF PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION AGAINST DEFENDANTS

Plaintiff, U.S. Commodity Futures Trading Commission ("Commission") has filed a Complaint against Defendants Stephen Walsh, Paul Greenwood, Westridge Capital Management, Inc., WG Trading Investors, LP, and WGIA, LLC (collectively "Defendants") and Relief Defendants WG Trading Company LP, Westridge Capital Management Enhancement Funds, Inc., WGI LLC, K&L Investments, and Janet Walsh (collectively "Relief Defendants") for Permanent Injunction, Civil Penalties, and Other Equitable Relief, and moved for an Ex Parte Statutory Restraining Order and Preliminary Injunction. The Court issued a Statutory Restraining Order on February 25, 2009, which remains in effect until further order of this Court.

As it appears to the Court that there is good cause to believe that Defendants have engaged, are engaging in, or are about to engage in violations of the Commodity Exchange Act, as amended ("Act") 7 U.S.C. §§ 1 et. seq. (2006), and that this is a proper case for granting a preliminary injunction to preserve the status quo, protect public customers from further loss and damage, and enable the Commission to fulfill its statutory duties, the Court enters this Order as follows:

DEFINITIONS

For the purposes of this Order, the following definitions apply:

1. "Assets" means any legal or equitable interest in, right to, or claim to, any real or personal property, including but not limited to chattels, goods, instruments, equipment, fixtures, general intangibles, effects, leaseholds, mail or other deliveries, inventory, checks, notes, accounts, credits, receivables, contracts, insurance policies, and all cash, wherever located, whether in the United States or abroad.
2. The term "document" is synonymous in meaning and equal in scope to the usage of the term in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34(a), and includes, but is not limited to, writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, audio and video recordings, computer records, and other data compilations from which information can be obtained and translated, if necessary, through detection devices into reasonable usable form. A draft or non-identical copy is a separate document within the meaning of the term.
3. The term "Defendants" refers to Stephen Walsh, Paul Greenwood, Westridge Capital Management, Inc., WG Trading Investors, LP, and WGIA, LLC, and any person insofar as he or she is acting in the capacity of an officer, agent, servant, employee, or attorney of any of the Defendants, and any person who receives actual notice of this Order by personal service or otherwise insofar as he or she is acting in concert or participation with any of the Defendants.

4. The term "Relief Defendants" refers to Westridge Capital Management Enhancement Funds, Inc., WG Trading Company LP, WGI, LLC, K&L Investments, and Janet Walsh.

I.

Jurisdiction and Venue

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

5. This Court has jurisdiction over the Defendants and the subject matter of this case pursuant to Section 6c(a) of the Commodity Exchange Act (the "Act") 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1(a) (2006), which authorizes the Commission to seek injunctive relief against any person whenever it shall appear that such person has engaged, is engaging, or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of the Act or any rule, regulation, or order thereunder.

6. Venue properly lies with this Court pursuant to Section 6c(c) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1(c), in that Defendants are found, inhabit, or transact business in this district, and the acts, practices, and conduct that allegedly violated the Act has occurred, is occurring, or is about to occur within this district, among other places.

II.

Prohibition from Violating the Act

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

ORDER OF PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

Plaintiff, U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") has filed a Complaint against Defendants WG Trading Investors, L.P., WG Trading Company Limited Partnership, Westridge Capital Management, Inc., Paul Greenwood and Stephen Walsh, (collectively "Defendants") and Relief Defendants Robin Greenwood and Janet Walsh (collectively "Relief Defendants") for Permanent Injunction, Civil Penalties, and Other Equitable Relief, and moved for an Ex Parte Temporary Restraining Order and Preliminary Injunction. The Court issued a Temporary Restraining Order on February 25, 2009, which remains in effect until further order of this Court.

As it appears to the Court that there is good cause to believe that Defendants have engaged, are engaging in, or are about to engage in violations of the Securities Act of 1933 [15

U.S.C. § 77(a) et seq.], the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 [15 U.S.C. § 78a et seq.], and the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 [15 U.S.C. § 80b-1 et seq.], and that this is a proper case for granting a preliminary injunction to preserve the status quo, protect public customers from further loss and damage, and enable the Commission to fulfill its statutory duties, the Court enters this Order as follows:

DEFINITIONS

For the purposes of this Order, the following definitions apply:

1. “Assets” means any legal or equitable interest in, right to, or claim to, any real or personal property, including but not limited to chattels, goods, instruments, equipment, fixtures, general intangibles, effects, leaseholds, mail or other deliveries, inventory, checks, notes, accounts, credits, receivables, contracts, insurance policies, and all cash, wherever located, whether in the United States or abroad.

2. The term “document” is synonymous in meaning and equal in scope to the usage of the term in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34(a), and includes, but is not limited to, writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, audio and video recordings, computer records, and other data compilations from which information can be obtained and translated, if necessary, through detection devices into reasonable usable form. A draft or non-identical copy is a separate document within the meaning of the term.

3. The term “Defendants” refers to WG Trading Investors, L.P., WG Trading Company Limited Partnership, Westridge Capital Management, Inc., Paul Greenwood, and Stephen Walsh, and any person insofar as he or she is acting in the capacity of an officer, agent, servant, employee, or attorney of any of the Defendants, and any person who receives actual

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA :

- v - :

PAUL GREENWOOD, and
STEPHEN WALSH,

Defendants. :

INDICTMENT

COUNT ONE

(Conspiracy To Commit Securities Fraud and Wire Fraud)

The Grand Jury charges:

Relevant Persons and Entities

1. At all relevant times, PAUL GREENWOOD and STEPHEN WALSH, the defendants, were the Managing General Partners of WG Trading Company Limited Partnership ("WG Trading"), a Delaware limited partnership operating as a commodity pool. GREENWOOD also was the Chief Operating Officer and Chief Financial Officer of WG Trading. WALSH also was the Chief Executive Officer and senior registered options principal of WG Trading.

2. At all relevant times, WG Trading was a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and a commodity pool as defined in regulations of the Commodity Futures Trading Commission ("CFTC"). WG Trading had offices in Greenwich, Connecticut, Jersey City, New Jersey, and North Hills,

New York, and executed securities trades through the New York Stock Exchange in New York, New York.

3. At all relevant times, PAUL GREENWOOD and STEPHEN WALSH, the defendants, were registered with the SEC as principals of a registered broker-dealer and with the CFTC as commodity pool operators.

4. At all relevant times, WG Trading Investors, LP ("WG Investors"), a Delaware limited partnership having its principal place of business in Greenwich, Connecticut, was a limited partner in WG Trading. PAUL GREENWOOD and STEPHEN WALSH, the defendants, were general partners of WG Investors and controlled WG Investors.

The Scheme To Defraud

5. From at least as early as in or about 1996 through and including in or about February 2009, PAUL GREENWOOD and STEPHEN WALSH, the defendants, orchestrated a scheme to defraud investors in WG Trading and WG Investors. Through this scheme, GREENWOOD, WALSH, and others known and unknown, solicited funds under false pretenses, failed to invest investors' funds as promised, and misappropriated and converted investors' funds to the personal benefit of GREENWOOD, WALSH, and others, without the knowledge or authorization of the investors.

6. From at least in or about 1996, through and including in or about February 2009, PAUL GREENWOOD and STEPHEN

WALSH, the defendants, and others known and unknown, solicited more than $7.6 billion from institutional investors, including charitable and university foundations, pension and retirement plans, and other institutions. GREENWOOD and WALSH, and their co-conspirators, told investors, both orally and in writing, that investor funds would be invested pursuant to a strategy called "equity index arbitrage," which involved buying and simultaneously selling, through futures, the stocks of a well-known equity index (such as the Standard and Poors 500 Index (the "S&P 500 Index")). The marketing materials provided to investors for WG Trading and its affiliates represented that the equity index arbitrage strategy was a low risk strategy that had consistently outperformed the results of the S&P 500 Index for a period of more than 10 years.

7. At all relevant times, investors were offered the opportunity to invest in WG Trading through different mechanisms. First, an investor could purchase a limited partnership interest in WG Trading. Second, an investor could invest through WG Investors by delivering funds to WG Investors in exchange for a promissory note from WG Investors to the investor, which would pay interest at a rate similar to the rate of return realized by a limited partnership interest in WG Trading. The investors were told that WG Investors was itself a limited partner of WG Trading, and that the majority of their funds would be passed through to WG Trading for investment pursuant to the equity index arbitrage strategy. Third, an investor could purchase an interest in an offshore fund, which in turn would invest the investor funds through WG Investors in exchange for a promissory note issued by WG Investors to the offshore fund.

8. Contrary to the representations to clients that their funds would be invested pursuant to the equity index arbitrage strategy, PAUL GREENWOOD and STEPHEN WALSH, the defendants, used investor funds to, among other things, finance their lavish personal lifestyles, meet the periodic redemption requests of other investors, make payments in connection with an investment in a publicly traded company that went bankrupt, and make payments for other investments and loans by WG Trading and WG Investors. Further, PAUL GREENWOOD and STEPHEN WALSH, the defendants, and a co-conspirator not named as a defendant herein ("CC-1"), created and caused others to create false account statements that were sent to clients to reflect fictitious returns consistent with the returns that had been promised to those clients.

9. From on or about January 1, 1999, through on or about February 6, 2009, PAUL GREENWOOD, the defendant, and others known and unknown, caused WG Investors to divert approximately $80 million to or for the benefit of GREENWOOD, including payments which were made by wire transfer from a WG Investors account to recipient banks in the Southern District of New York. From on or about January 1, 1999, through on or about January 9, 2009, STEPHEN WALSH, and others known and unknown, caused WG Investors to divert approximately $51 million to or for the benefit of WALSH, including payments which were made by wire transfer from a WG Investors account to recipient banks in the Southern District of New York. These payments were directed to GREENWOOD and WALSH, to members of their families, to various entities that they or their family members controlled, and/or to persons and entities for goods (including antiques and collectibles) and services purchased by GREENWOOD and WALSH.

10. In order to conceal the fact that PAUL GREENWOOD and STEPHEN WALSH, the defendants, were misappropriating investor funds, and the fact that neither WG Trading nor WG Investors was profitable, CC-1, at the direction of GREENWOOD and WALSH, prepared promissory notes that were issued by GREENWOOD and WALSH to WG Investors. From in or about 1998 through in or about 2008, GREENWOOD issued promissory notes to WG Investors totaling approximately $293 million ("GREENWOOD Notes"). From in or about 1998 through in or about 2008, WALSH issued promissory notes totaling approximately $261 million ("WALSH Notes").

11. The amount of the GREENWOOD Notes and WALSH Notes that PAUL GREENWOOD and STEPHEN WALSH, the defendants, issued to WG Investors included: (a) the funds that were transferred to or for the benefit of GREENWOOD and WALSH, respectively; (b) the capitalization of purported investor earnings paid to or accrued for investors who held notes issued by WG Investors, which earnings were fictitious and fraudulent; and (c) write-offs in unprofitable investments that GREENWOOD and WALSH had made through WG Trading and WG Investors.
